AFFIDAVIT OF KEVIN MERREL

I, Kevin Merrel, being duly sworn, do hereby declare, testify and state as follows

1. I am a resident and citizen of the State of California.

2. In 2006, I posted one or more game hints onto the website www.gamewinners.com.

3. In particular, I posted a game hint that read:

Killing Berserkers usually takes two hits with the Hammer of Dawn. However if you stick a grenade to them while they are still glowing red, then it saves the trouble of aiming again with the Hammer of Dawn. This is easier with two players, but not too difficult to do solo.

4. In posting the foregoing game hint, I used the username "Kevin Merrel".

5. I wrote the foregoing game hint. It is original to me.

6. I did not obtain the foregoing game hint from www.cheatcc.com, www.cheatmasters.com, or any other website.

7. The foregoing game hint may still be accessed at www.gamewinners.com at http://www.gamewinners.com/Cheats/index.php/More:Gears_Of_War:_Combat

8. I make the foregoing statements voluntarily.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing are true and correct statements.

Dated this 20th day of July 2009.

AFFIDAVIT OF BRANDON MIZERA

I, Brandon Mizera, being duly sworn, do hereby declare, testify and state as follows

1. I am a resident and citizen of the State of Utah.
2. In 2006, I posted one or more hints onto the website www.gamewinners.com.
3. In particular, I posted a hint that read:

Boomers have rocket launchers and can usually kill you in one hit. In order to kill them safely, take cover and wait until they shoot at you before you start shooting back. Just as they start reloading it the best time to shoot them, because their gun has a very slow reload. After they reload, hide again and let them fire. Repeat this a few times to kill them.

4. In addition, I posted a hint that read:

When you get to General RAAM at the end of the last Act, he will have a Gatlin type gun and is surrounded by the Bird Locust. There will also be flying Locusts attacking from the side of the train (ignore them). You can only damage General RAAM when the Bird Locusts leaves him and goes for you. Stay in the light or the birds can kill you. When you start fighting him, hide behind the first rectangular block that is directly in front of the doors you came from. He will start walking towards you and shoot. When the birds leave him, start shooting. After a while he will get directly in front of where you are hiding. When he does, run around him and hide on the other side of the platform. Stay in the light as you run. Hide, then continue shooting him until he dies.

5. In posting the foregoing hint, I used the username "brandon mizera".
6. I wrote the foregoing hint. It is original to me.
7. I did not obtain the foregoing hint from www.cheatcc.com,

AFFIDAVIT OF SHAYNE COLTON

I, Shayne Colton, being duly sworn, do hereby declare, testify and state as follows

1. I am a resident and citizen of the State of British Columbia.
2. Prior to November 2006, I posted one or more cheat codes onto the website www.gamewinners.com.

3. In particular, I posted a cheat code that read:

Get General RAAM off the Gatlin gun.
When he starts walking towards you, let Dominic get his attention. Then, run towards the Gatlin gun and shoot him with it. This should kill him in seconds. This is easier in co-op mode.

4. In posting the foregoing cheat code, I used the username "Shayne Colton".
5. I wrote the foregoing cheat code. It is original to me.

6. I did not obtain the foregoing cheat code from www.cheatcc.com, www.cheatmasters.com, or any other cheat code website.
7. The foregoing cheat code may still be accessed at www.gamewinners.com at http://www.gamewinners.com/Cheats/index.php/More:Gears_Of_War:_Combat.
8. As an individual who avidly plays video games, I am familiar with both www.cheatcc.com and www.gamewinners.com. I used to visit both of these sites. I ceased using www.cheatcc.com because its publication of cheat codes would be delayed and occur subsequent to the publication of the same cheat codes on other sites.
9. In fact, I posted a cheat code to www.gamewinners.com. I later found my cheat code on www.cheatcc.com. I did not post it to www.cheatcc.com or provide www.cheatcc.com with permission to publish my cheat code.
10. I make the foregoing statements voluntarily.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing are true and correct statements.

DECLARATION OF JAMES STRETCH

I, James Stretch, do hereby declare, testify and state as follows

1. I am a resident and citizen of Canada.
2. My address is 133 Paramount Court, Calgary, AB.
3. I am aged 15 years old.
4. I understand that my statements must be accurate and truthful.
5. Prior to November 2006, I posted one or more game hints onto the website www.gamewinners.com.

6. In particular, I posted a game hint that read:

Before you become a vampire, it is recommended that you become a member of the Mages Guild, access to the Arcane University, and either a member of the Dark Brotherhood or started the Order of the Virtuous Blood quest.

Dark Brotherhood Story: Become a member of the Dark Brotherhood by killing an innocent person, going to sleep in an inn, traveling to the Inn of Ill Omen, and killing Rufio. Travel to the Sanctuary and talk to Vicente and finish all of his contracts. He will then ask if you wish to become a vampire. Say "Yes", then sleep on the slab. When you wake up, sleep again for twenty four hours three times. You are now a full-fledged vampire.

Order of Virtuous Blood Story: It is not required to begin the quest, but if you do the vampires will be easier to kill. If you have not, travel along the river just to the east of Imperial City until you find a cave. Go in and you should find lots of vampires. Attack one and let it hit you a few times. Kill it, then go back to Imperial City. Get a room in an inn and sleep for twenty four hours three times. You are now a full-fledged vampire.

7. In addition, I posted a game hint that read:

This is why you need to be allowed in the University. Go in and talk to the mage. He will tell you to talk to a man in Skingrad. Do as he says and run errands for whoever you need to talk to. Eventually you will be allowed to get rid of your Vampiricy.

8. The foregoing game hints may still be accessed at www.gamewinners.com at http://www.gamewinners.com/Cheats/index.php/More:The_Elder_Scolls_4:_Oblivion:_Vampirism.

9. Although I did not post these game hints to www.cheatcc.com, game hints appear on www.cheatcc.com in a form nearly identical to mine at <http://www.cheatcc.com/xbox360/elderscrolls4oblivioncheatscodes.html>.

10. With respect to the foregoing game hints, I am a very large fan of the Oblivion game. I obtained all of the information from actual play. From my recollection, I have in total played for approximately 200 hours in the time since the game has been released.

11. In the month of March in the year 2006, I also posted a game hint to www.gamewinners.com that read:

Despite the name, this battle can be very easy. Equip Oathkeeper and the abilities Reaction Boost, Explosion, and EXP Up for some extra levels. First, use Rising Sun to get yourself into a corner. Then, keep on using air combos on the floating Heartless and ground combos and Rising Sun on the infantry. Whenever you can, Snag a floater and use Sparkle Ray, then finish off the survivors. Oathkeeper will give you fast powerful combos; Explosion can kill about eight Heartless every time you use it; and EXP Up will ensure that you get lots of levels if you have low health. After the fight you will see some intermission sequences, have a chance to go back to other worlds and finish them, and obtain the Gullwing keychain from Yuna, Rikku, and Paine.

12. The foregoing game hint may still be accessed at www.gamewinners.com at <http://www.gamewinners.com/playstation2/KingdomHearts2.htm>.

13. Although I did not post this game hint to www.cheatcc.com, a game hint appears on www.cheatcc.com in a form nearly identical to mine at <http://www.cheatcc.com/psx2/kingdomhearts2cheatscodes.html>.

14. I obtained all of the information for the foregoing cheat code quoted in Paragraph 9 from actual play.

15. In posting all of the foregoing game hints quoted in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 9, I used the username "James Stretch".

16. I wrote all of the foregoing game hints quoted in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 9. They are original to me.

17. I did not obtain any of the foregoing game hints quoted in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 9 from www.cheatcc.com, www.cheatmasters.com, or any other cheat code website.

18. I have never submitted anything to www.cheatcc.com.

19. I have only ever contributed to www.gamewinners.com and GameFAQS.

20. Prior to learning of the above-captioned case, I had only heard of CheatCC on /v/.

21. The foregoing statements are accurate and truthful.

22. I make the foregoing statements voluntarily.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing are true and correct statements.

DECLARATION OF CAMERON BENOIT

I, Cameron Benoit, do hereby declare, testify and state as follows

- 1. I am a resident and citizen of Ontario, Canada.
- 2. In 2006, I posted one or more cheat codes onto the website www.gamewinners.com.

- 3. In particular, I posted a cheat code that read:

To defeat RAAM at the end of the game, simply duck behind the first blockade (the one you start at). Use the sniper rifle to shoot RAAM from a distance and remain ducked until he gets to the other side of the block. Stay ducked on the light and when he sends the Krill guarding him to attack you, blind shoot and him. At this spot he is unable to shoot you. Just continue until he is dead. Also, do not worry about saving your teammate or shooting the Reavers as they are only distractions.

Case No. 2008-cv-157-MHW-MRA

AFFIDAVIT OF JASON WATENE

I, Jason Watene, being duly sworn, do hereby declare, testify and state as follows:

1. I am a resident and citizen of the State of Washington.
2. My address is 19412 40th Ave W. Apt 105. Lynnwood
WA, 98036
3. In the year of 2006, I posted one or more game hints onto the website www.gamewinners.com.

4. In particular, I posted game hints that read:

Make Midna mad

When you are restoring items such as the bridge in Kakariko Gorge, the fountain in Zora's Domain and the bridge north of East Hyrule, go to each of these items. Then, warp somewhere besides where the location should be. She will get frustrated with you and will yell at you.

Get berated by Malo

Malo is the little child who resembles an infant or toddler, but is in fact probably one of the smartest children in Hyrule. He is so smart that he tends to make fun of everyone he encounters.

When your showing everyone how to use the sword and the slingshot listen to this child's response.

When you find him in Kakariko Village, enter his shop he will say rude things to you.

When you are showing off your archery skills to the children, cancel. He will ask if you need more arrows. Say no and he will ask if you want to give up. Select "I am no quitter". He will then quickly respond with some snide comment about how slow you are.

Also after the store is closed in Kakariko Village, come back at certain times of the night. Before morning, he will leave comments on his door.

Invisible sprinkler system

When you finish restoring Darbus back to normal, go over to the bomb shop and enter the building. Find and stand next to Barnes. Take out your lantern and he will quickly tell you to put it out. Then, stand somewhere else out of sight of him. He will stomp the ground and spray water all over you. It does not matter where you are in the building. You will always get water sprayed on you if you pull out your lantern.

Strange looking Malo

Whenever you get the Slingshot or Bow and arrow, look for Malo. He is the child that resembles a little infant. Pull out either of these objects and stand in front of him. Shoot him with it. He will pull his head back and say nothing. Alternately, when you defeat the Darbus from Death Mountain go back into Kakariko Village and find Malo. He is up on one of the higher ledges scouting the area for monsters. He will ask if you can show him how to use a bow. Say yes and you will be brought down next to Malo for instructions. Turn your camera but do not move yourself and look at Malo. His eyes will make him look like a child from a horror movie.

Sinking Lure

Go to the fishing hole. Catch and keep the following fish: Hylian Pike, Hylian Bass, and an Ordonian Catfish. Once you acquire these three fish, leave the fishing hole and re-enter it to save the stats of the fish. Do not warp out or you will not keep the fish in the tank. Next, get the Coral Earring. This can be found by meeting Ashei and retrieving the Drawing Of The Beast. Take this drawing to the Zora Child who is standing next to his father's grave behind the cemetery in Kakariko Village. He then will give you the Coral Earring. After you acquire the earring, go the fishing hole and follow the path to the right. Cross the bridge where you retrieved the Empty Bottle and go as far north as possible. Once you get to the fishing bank, take out your fishing pole and face north. Cast your line and in a few attempts you should have the long awaited Sinking Lure. Note: Do not use this lure while fishing with Hena. She will take it away from you. If you dare to use it, just go over to where you acquired it before and you will be able to attain this lure again.
